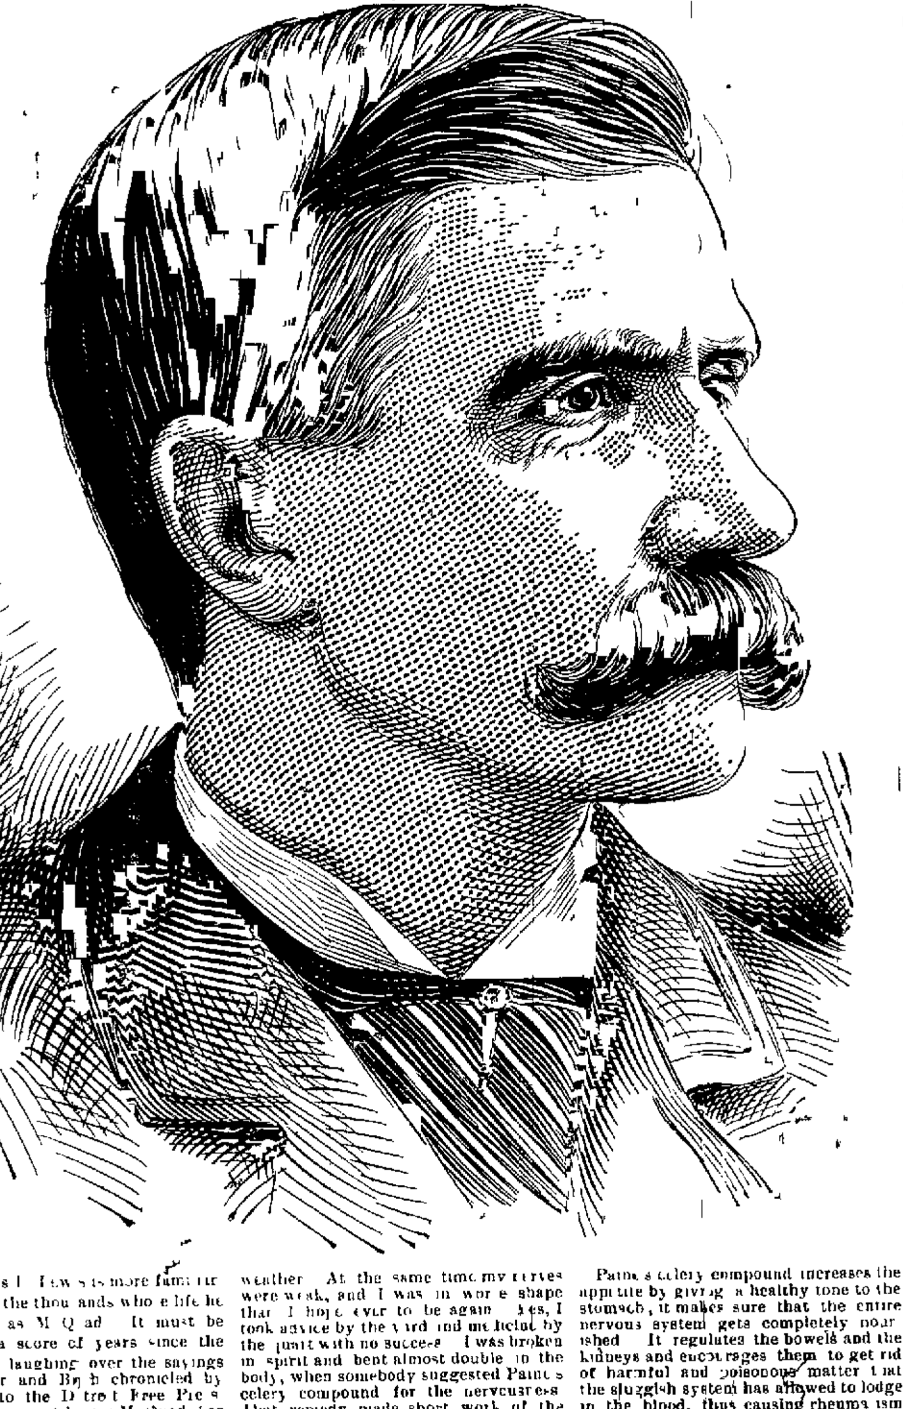
BEST KNOWN OF AMERICA'S WRITERS.

M. Quad, the Detroit Free Press [illegible] Paine's Celery Compound.



Mr Charles B Lewis is more familiarly known to the thousands whose life he has cheered as M Quad It must be more than a score of years since the country was laughing over the sayings of his honor and Bijah chronicled by Mr Lewis to the Detroit Free Press From that time until now M Quad has delighted the public with unnumbered quaint sketches of character overflowing with a humor that appealed to readers all the more strongly because they recognized the fidelity to life under the fun

Among Mr Lewis's recent creations the Bowsers, Brother Gardner, Mrs Gallup's Tribulations Possum Sketches and the Arizona Kicker are destined to long life Mr Lewis admirers will be surprised to learn that, like Walter Scott, Mark Twain and other highly gifted authors, he has produced work of rare quality while tormented by pain

Mr Lewis suffered intensely from rheumatism "It made my days and nights miserable," he says "and, of course, the agony was greater in bad weather At the same time my nerves were weak, and I was in worse shape than I hope ever to be again Yes, I took advice by the yard and medicine by the quart with no success I was broken in spirit and bent almost double in the body, when somebody suggested Paine's celery compound for the nervousness That remedy made short work of the nervousness and of the rheumatism too A few doses made me feel much better, and today I am well a happy change that I attribute to the use of Paine's celery compound It gives me sincere pleasure to bear witness on the merits of the compound I know at least a dozen authors and journalists who have found it a remedy for the same complaints

Rheumatism attacks the body when it is tired out, and when its functions begin to act sluggishly Disordered nerves faulty digestion, and a slow incomplete nutrition of the body invite rheumatism just as they do neuralgia and nervous debility There is no surer starting point for rheumatism than a run down nerveless condition

Paine's celery compound increases the appetite by giving a healthy tone to the stomach, it makes sure that the entire nervous system gets completely nourished It regulates the bowels and the kidneys and encourages them to get rid of harmful and poisonous matter that the sluggish system has allowed to lodge in the blood, thus causing rheumatism and kindred disorders

You cannot cure rheumatism by outward applications The disease is due to internal disorder and must be constitutionally attacked and got rid of Paine's celery compound has done for thousands of other people exactly what it did for Mr Lewis They were sufferers as he was, and the compound has made them well

The warmest praises of Paine's celery compound are from men and women of high character and keen intelligence They know they are doing a work of humanity and mercy in commending to all persons out of health this certain and speedy means of getting strong and well

Thanksgiving

Table Ware.

The good things to eat on the Thanksgiving table are only half the dinner, after all. The other half is made up of dishes, glassware and table cutlery

Put toothsome food on pretty dishes, and eat it with bright and shining knives, forks and spoons—then everything will taste twice as good

Of course keen, sharp carvers are a necessity. You can't serve the turkey right without them. Might almost as well try to do without turkey at Thanksgiving as to get along without good carvers

If you bought table ware at our store last year you won't need to buy any this year Our table ware is the kind that lasts a long time

But if it happens that you need anything for the Thanksgiving table now, here is the place to come Our rule is always the same—no dish, glassware, crockery, or table cutlery shall go out of this store unless it is reliable enough to do us credit

Needn't hesitate about prices—chances are you'll be surprised at their moderation

THE GOLD RESERVE.

Another Bond Issue Under Contemplation.

Bankers to Furnish $25,000,000 in Gold and Receive 4 Per Cents.

Reported Position of Ex-Speaker Reed on the Financial Question.

NEW YORK Nov 15 It is rumored that the treasury department has communicated with New York bankers with a view to making arrangements for the restoration of the gold reserve The proposition is that when the reserve falls to $75 000,000 the banks shall furnish $25 000 000 in gold, for which they will receive four per cent bonds on a 3 per cent basis The idea is regarded with favor by the banks and they would rather supply gold than experience another financial disturbance.

Thomas B Reed, who is slated for speaker of the house of representatives, spent some time in New York recently discussing currency questions with bankers He it is said, has intimated that he will oppose the proposed retirement of the greenbacks by the issue of bonds He found that bankers as a rule objected to the wiping out of greenbacks if there is to be no other form of money to take their place

While the treasury statement shows that $346,000,000 of greenbacks are outstanding experts estimate that the amount in circulation is less than $300 000 000

NATIONAL TRAFFIC.

Measures for Our Commercial Advancement.

Senators Frye and Hoar Speak at Banquet in Boston.

Given by the Boston Merchants' Association at the Vendome.

BOSTON, Nov 15 The annual dinner of the Boston Merchants' Association was held this evening in Hotel Vendome The subject for the occasion was the general improvement of Boston harbor and it drew as large a gathering of the solid men of the State as the immense dining hall could accommodate Prior to the banquet there was a reception in the parlors The banquet was served soon after 6 The dining room was elaborately decorated with the national colors and emblems Over 250 plates were laid

After the banquet, Hon J R Leeson, president of the association and a member of the executive council, opened the speaking with a few introductory remarks and introduced Lieut Governor Wolcott who in the absence of the Governor welcomed the guests on behalf of the Commonwealth Collector Winslow Warren spoke for the national administration showing the extent of Boston's commerce

Other speakers were Woodward Emery, chairman of the dock commission Col S M Mansfield U S A, William H Lincoln of the Leyland Steamship line Hon Alden Speare president of the associated board of trade, Senator Frye, of Maine Senator Hawley of Connecticut and Senator Hoar of Massachusetts

Senator Hoar spoke as follows

Senator Hoar's Remarks

This is a representative gathering of the business men of New England It represents the men who have been foremost in this country for public spirit, for wise forethought for enterprise and courage and patriotism and nationality, ever since the stars and stripes first floated in the breeze They are unlikely to ask anything of the Congress of the United States which will not be granted

Certainly there will be no trouble in getting what they want for Boston harbor Since I have been in public life I do not think there has ever been a request from any influential quarter for an improvement in Boston harbor which has not been promptly complied with

There has been as you know, much difference of opinion as to what are known as internal improvements Indeed, among the waves of delusion and folly which, in spite of the intelligence of our people, sometimes sweep over the land—a prejudice, which I am happy to say has now pretty much gone by—that against what are known as river and harbor bills seems to me one of the most flagrant cases We have seen the rapid and marvellous development of our railroad system with its cheapened freights and its creation of easy intercourse between all parts of the country but the waterway has been, is now, and probably will be the great safeguard against extortion and monopoly in the matter of freights

This matter, which is essential to all parts of the country is vital to Massachusetts She is a great manufacturing State, carrying on her manufactures at a distance from the source of her material from the source of her steam power, and from her market The reduction of freights to the lowest possible point is to her a necessity of life Boston is also the second exporting and importing port in the country She can only maintain that character by having the ways over which her exports are brought to tide water here, and her imports distributed over the country brought to the highest possible degree of excellence and cheapness

The policy of internal improvement has been the policy of the statesmen of Massachusetts from the beginning If you will examine Mr Webster's speeches both those that are collected in his works, and the numerous speeches of his not found there, you will find that he deals with this topic more frequently than with all others put together save the preservation of the Union alone

John Quincy Adams, who agreed with Daniel Webster in so few matters agreed with him in this I suppose we may fairly claim that any doctrine upon which Daniel Webster and John Quincy Adams agreed is a Massachusetts doctrine Mr Adams wanted, in 1806, an expenditure of $5 000 a year for this purpose, an amount which, compared with our resources and expenditures today, would equal an annual expenditure now of $75 000 000

The notion that there get into these bills any items for objects that are not of national or international importance, or that they are made up by log-rolling and corrupt bargaining for the interest of localities is preposterous No item of appropriation is ever inserted in a river and harbor bill where there has not been a survey ordered by the war department and a favorable recommendation from the engineers—men who are absolutely free from any local or political inclination, and not more than 20 per cent, I suppose, of what these officers recommend as desirable is ever granted in a single year

Of course, in selecting a fifth part of all those desirable, due regard is had to the interests of different localities I suppose that if there were needed in the city of Cambridge next year 10 new schoolhouses, and the city government thought it could afford to build but three, it would not put them all in one ward, but would think that one should be put in Old Cambridge, one in East Cambridge and one in Cambridgeport It would be ridiculous to expend the whole $13,000-000 of the next river and harbor bill in New England, or on the Pacific coast, or on the Mississippi river

I have never heard from the bitterest antagonist of our river and harbor policies any objection to do what is needed for Boston harbor On that depends, and must always depend, the supremacy of Boston, however important her great manufacturing interests, I remember, when I was a boy in college, coming into Boston to hear Mr Webster make a speech before a committee of the Legislature in opposition to some scheme which he thought would injure the harbor. He had the curious habit, as he grew old, which, possibly, some of the elders among you may remember—a habit which does not appear in his speeches as they were reported—of using in the same sentence a great many words which were nearly synonymous, groping after and trying one after another till he got the one he liked best.

I remember his magnificent presence, as he stood up in that thronged chamber and uttered his plea for Boston harbor. I should have been willing ever since to testify on oath that he was a man of at least 6 feet 2 or 3 and must have weighed 250 pounds, But I believe it is well proved that he was but 5 feet 9, and weighed about 160 pounds Such was the glamour of his great character and his noble presence I should remember what he said

"Why is it, Mr. Chairman, that this great body of people have their house, their dwelling, their habitation here? Why is it that all these public railways, avenues, these highways and railroads meet, converge and come together here? It is because here we have a safe, secure, sufficient, ample, commodious, convenient port, harbor, haven"

What Daniel Webster has said once it is not wise for anybody else to undertake to say again in other language Boston harbor will have all it wants, all that the merchants of Boston ask for it

Senator Frye was received with applause as he was introduced and he spoke somewhat as follows

Senator Frye's Remarks

Mr President and Gentlemen—I comply with pleasure with a request made me by your president that I would speak generally on the subject of river and harbor improvements

Since the close of the civil war the increase of our domestic commerce has been marvelous—without a parallel in the history of the nations It has been estimated that in the year 1892 we transported fruits of our own labor to the inconceivable value of $45,000 000,000 over nearly 175 000 miles of railroad, almost one half of the railway mileage of the world, and by about 8 000 000 tons of documented and undocumented vessels a fleet twice greater than the combined fleets of Great Britain France Germany and Spain employed in like trade

I saw by yesterday's press that Mr Depew stated in a speech that of freights hauled 100 miles on rail, our roads carried 200,000 000 more tons than the rest of the world

Now what intelligent man questions that a constant reduction in freight rates has been a very important factor in the accomplishment of this grand result? The average charge in this country for moving freight to-day, by water or by rail is not one-half the actual cost in 1865 Then the average rate paid railroads per ton a mile was 3½ cents, the average cost 2½ cents, while in 1891 the average charge in New York New Jersey Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland was 78 of a cent per ton a mile and but little more in the other States while the average cost did not much exceed 50 of a cent Our roads are doing business a much lower rates than any others

Now water transportation costs by steam one-fifths and by sail one-tenth of that by rail Between San Francisco and Europe a voyage of 15 000 miles the charge for carrying grain is from $7 50 to $10 a ton, or from 05 to 067 of a cent a ton mile When it is ordinarily carried from New York to Liverpool $2 a ton or 066 a cent a ton a mile Isn't it apparent to any one that our water competition has been an amazing benefactor in compelling this enormous reduction in freight charges?

How are we to reduce rates still more? I do not believe the railroads can carry for less, unless some new motive power is used If reduction is to be had, waterways must be the instruments I think the intelligent men of this country realize that facilities for carriage by water must be increased with the view that thus only can freight rates be further reduced

It seems to be the general judgment that the opening up of the Nicaragua canal would greatly reduce rates and enormously extend our commerce both foreign and domestic It would certainly shorten the distance between New York and San Francisco 10,000 miles bring Alaska 8 000 the Hawaiian islands 7 000 Hong Kong 4 000 Yokohama 6 000 and Valparaiso 700 miles nearer Boston than it now is to San Francisco

The Suez canal was no benefit to us It reduced the distance between Liverpool and the Mediterranean ports, the East Indies Australia, China and Japan about 5,000 miles but while before it was constructed we were as near these countries as Great Britain was, afterwards we were from 2 000 to 3,000 farther off English commerce with these countries responded to this condition at once From 1870 the year the Suez canal was opened, to 1888, her commerce with the Orient increased 49 per cent while with the rest of the world the increase was only 17 per cent

The opening of the Nicaragua canal would almost reverse the conditions We should then be as near Hong Kong as England, 1200 miles nearer all the northern ports of China than she, 1900 miles nearer Japan, 1000 miles nearer Australia We should once more be brought in touch with 500 000,000 of the people of the East.

The benefits of this canal to our domestic commerce must be even greater than to our foreign Today the products of the East seek the great States of California, Oregon and Washington, and those of the West, the Atlantic ports, through the transcontinental railroads, subject to a freight charge of from $20 to $40 a ton, or by steamer through the strait of Magellan, at the rate of $12 to $14 a ton, or by sail around the horn at a rate from $10 to $12 Now the time between New York and San Francisco for freight by rail is from 25 to 30 days, by steamer 45 to 50 days, by sail from 110 to 120 days

When the canal is completed the length of the voyage between the same points by steam will be reduced to 18 to 20 days, by sail to 30 or 40 days, with a reduction of about one-third on freight charges. San Francisco, the mouth of the Columbia river and Puget sound will be more than 10,000 miles nearer New York than now, 11,000 miles nearer our gulf ports, by water, too, where the cost of freight carriage is from one fifth to one tenth that by rail.

Remember, too, that the cost of freighting lumber across the continent now by rail is absolutely prohibitory, while on wheat, wool and canned goods it closely approaches confiscation. Consider that a ship to-day loaded with the lumber of Oregon bound for the shipyards of Maine takes for the voyage 130 days, charges for freight $12 a thousand, while by this canal she can make the same voyage in 40 or 50 days and net more money at $8 a thousand, that a steamer can pass over the same route in 20 days. Is it open to doubt that the canal will give a tremendous impulse to our coastwise trade; that the States on the Pacific slope will enormously increase in population and wealth?

An increase in vessel tonnage is a necessity. No small craft can today do business at the going rates at a profit Shall the government recognize these facts and act accordingly or must the ships go out of commission, the day of small things return, and freight rates go up? There is scarcely a harbor around the lakes, only a few on the seaboard, hardly a river, where the water a quarter of a century ago was ample, could today, with the same depth, float one-half of our carrying vessels

SCROFULA.

Any doctor will tell you that Professor Hare, of Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, is one of the highest authorities in the world on the action of drugs. In his last work, speaking of the treatment of scrofula, he says:

"It is hardly necessary to state that cod-liver oil is the best remedy of all. The oil should be given in emulsion, so prepared as to be palatable."

He also says that the hypophosphites should be combined with the oil.

Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil, with hypophosphites, is precisely such a preparation.

IMPORTANT MATTERS.

Two Questions Deeply Affecting United States

Will Probably be Brought to the Attention of Congress at Once.

One Concerning Monroe Doctrine and Venezuela, the Other Hawaii.

WASHINGTON, Nov 15 Judging from hints thrown out by the leaders of both political parties it is certain that two important joint resolutions will be offered immediately after the assembling of the 54th Congress This will be the affirmation of the principles embodied in the Monroe doctrine, expressing in plain and vigorous language the sympathy of the American people with the government of Venezuela in the boundary dispute with Great Britain

The second joint resolution, which it is said is being prepared with much care, provides for the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands to the United States under a territorial form of government

A HORRIBLE TRAGEDY.

Man Kills His Children and Himself From Despondency.

PHOENIXVILLE Pa, Nov 15 A horrible tragedy was enacted here today at the home of Thomas Elwyn a puddler Last Friday Elwyn's wife left home and failed to come back Her husband and five children were left to take care of themselves Things went wrong about the house and Elwyn became disheartened When the eldest boy came home this afternoon he found in a bed the bodies of his father his sister aged 6 and his brother Thomas, aged 4, with their throats cut from ear to ear The children were dead and the father was dying Elwyn had been drinking hard in consequence of his domestic troubles

MUST PAY TAXES

Assessments on Ten Millions of Gould Estate Stand

NEW YORK Nov 15 The general term of the supreme court today handed down a decision in which they sustain the special term dismissing the writ of certiorari asked for by the executors of the estate of Jay Gould to review the action of the tax commissioner in assessing them for 1893 upon $10 000,000 real estate property The assessment therefore stands

The Gould executors claimed that they could not be taxed as the personal property was not in their possession at the time the assessment was made They claimed that the assessment was made January 9 1893, and the will of J Gould was not admitted to probate until two days afterwards

MAINE IS WILLING

That Massachusetts Shoe Manufacturers Should Remove Here

BOSTON, Nov 15 Representatives of all the shoe manufacturing firms in Marlboro Mass, held a meeting at the United States Hotel to day Several Marlboro manufacturers have declared that they will remove to Maine where labor is permitted to be cheaper by the trade unions unless they are allowed to conduct business in their own way They claim the right of adjusting the scale of wages to give them a profit, which under the present arrangement, they allege, they are unable to obtain

Chase, Merritt & Co is one of the firms that proposes to go to Maine, unless the situation is changed The wage question is not the principal issue in its case Its representatives are annoyed by the treatment they have received from the Marlboro city government, the aldermen having granted permission to Col Henry Parsons to build a smoke producing annex to his foundry which is close to the shoe factory This shoe firm pays $2 300 weekly in wages It has received a proposition from Mechanic Falls, Maine, and will decide to-morrow whether it will go there

J Frank Desmond expects to leave Marlboro for Maine or New Hampshire unless he can run his factory without interference The State board of arbitration is of little use to the manufacturers in this case as the latter's competitors are outside the State, or, if they are in the State, are running non-union shops in which the labor union scales of prices are not law Today's conference was secret and lasted over two hours, without taking definite action on the matter at issue The manufacturers will meet at the same place Wednesday afternoon

RETALIATION PROPOSED

Prussia Excludes American Companies and Something Will be Done Here

NEW YORK, Nov 15 The State superintendents of insurance held a meeting today at the Hoffman House to formulate a plan of retaliation against insurance companies of Prussia doing business in this country The Prussian government has virtually excluded American life and fire insurance companies from writing policies throughout the empire

The insurance companies of the United States are trying to devise some means whereby the Prussian insurance companies may be prevented from doing business in the United States Among those present to-day were Supt Pierce, of the New York State, Hon George S Merrill, of Massachusetts, Hon W H Brines, of Rhode Island, Hon S W Carr, of Maine, and Hon F A Betts, of Connecticut

Estimates for Continuing Work Of Interest to Maine People

WASHINGTON, Nov 15 The annual report of General Craighill chief engineer, to the secretary of war, is made public As illustrating the backwardness of the work of coast defence General Craighill cites the case of Portland Me, where the project calls for 18 guns of large calibre, 48 mortars while emplacements are being built for but three guns He submits in detail his estimates for river and harbor improvements which under the administration of his predecessor, General Casey were always withheld from the public

The estimates for continuing work on the more important river and harbor projects in New England are as follows (Amount to be expended in the next fiscal year) Maine—Lubec channel $40 000, Moosabec River $30 000 Mt Desert Breakwater $25 000 Rockland harbor $30 000 Kennebec river $40 000 Back Cove, Portland $20 000 harbor of refuge Little Harbor N H $10 000

Massachusetts—Boston harbor $[illegible] 000, Narragansett Bay $17 000 Newport harbor $10 000 Point Judith harbor of refuge $600 000

The financial statement shows that there was expended on rivers and harbors during the past fiscal year (exclusive of the Mississippi and Missouri river commission expenditure) $[illegible] 440 994 making the total the past two years $30,904 084 The estimate submitted for the next two years which General Craighill believes necessary to conform to the practice of Congress in failing to pass a bill during the short session, are $21 016 197

STATE OF MAINE.

By Henry B. Cleaves, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

The annual harvest has been gathered. The year that is rapidly drawing to a close, has [illegible] to the people of our beloved State a large measure of prosperity. Peace, good [illegible] contentment and happiness prevail within [illegible]. God has crowned the year [illegible] His blessings and favors, and with the [illegible] flowing [illegible] of His grace and mercy [illegible].

Thursday, the Twenty-eighth day of November

[illegible] the year of our Lord, one thousand eight [illegible] ninety-five, is hereby designated, [illegible] of the Executive Council, as a

Thanksgiving and Praise.

[illegible] from ordinary vocations, may [illegible] of the Christian Commonwealth, in [illegible] places dedicated to public [illegible] regular tributes of praise and gratitude [illegible] manifestations of God's goodness. [illegible] the Executive Chamber at Augusta, [illegible] day of November, in the year [illegible] Lord, one thousand eight hundred [illegible] ninety-five and of the Independence of [illegible] States of America the one hundred [illegible].

HENRY B. CLEAVES.

[illegible] Secretary of State.

The Issue is Settled.

The New York World wants to know what is to be the issue in the campaign next year. The people have already settled that fact and we doubt if the World is as ignorant of the tendency of the times as its question would indicate. The issue next year will be Americanism as exemplified in a tariff law that shall protect American industry and American labor, instead of a law that has proved the "salvation" of British industry; a foreign policy that will protect the dignity and maintain the rights of the American people as against each and every foreign power, instead of the "policy of infamy" that has characterized the present Administration; a policy that will sustain the financial standing of the Government the world over, instead of a policy that has so crippled the resources of the Treasury that, to adopt the language of the World a few weeks since, "the richest nation in the world has been helplessly depending for the solvency of its Treasury upon the grace and good offices of two Wall street bankers and their unknown partners in speculation."

In a word it will be Americanism as against Clevelandism; Republicanism as against Democracy. This fact has been made so clear in the last two elections that no room has been left for argument. The attempt of Democratic editors to discuss relative degrees of protection and to suggest that the Republicans will do this, that or the other, is simply an impertinent piece of assumption intended to distract attention from the fearful blunder of the Democratic party in enacting the tariff legislation that has resulted in widespread disaster. The people are not considering schedules. They know that the Republican party stands for protection, and that as it framed a tariff law when last in power that gave the country its highest standard of prosperity, so it will again frame a tariff law when restored to power, as it will be next year, that will recognize the needs of the American people and adequately protect them from unwise and unjust foreign competition.

They also know the meaning of Democratic rule and can no longer be caught by Democratic promises. This knowledge clears the atmosphere immensely. Heretofore the Democrats have attacked everything Republican, claiming that what the country needed was a Democratic Administration, and to the average voter that was an unknown quantity. For the past two years, however, the Democrats have been busily engaged supplying the information, and the people have very positively stated at the polls that the object lesson has been sufficient. The issue for 1896 is made and the verdict has been emphatically foreshadowed in the great popular uprising [illegible].

A Worthy Champion.

The Philadelphia Record enjoys the distinction of being about the only paper in this country of any prominence that endorses the Edinburgh speech of Ambassador Bayard. The New York Herald is a pronounced free trade paper, but yet it was able to see the impropriety of an American Ambassador using his official position to deliver a stump speech. It is not to be expected, however, that the Record would recognize this very plain fact, or if it did would have the candor to state it. Indeed facts are things for which the Record has no use. For weeks past it has been engaged in a crusade in support of the existing tariff law, the only distinctive feature of which has been its utter disregard of truth. Among other things it has stated that over two hundred new woolen mills have been established in this country as a direct result of the new tariff law. This lie has been taken up by the papers and so thoroughly exploded that the Record has ceased to run it in its columns, but of course has not had the honesty to publish the facts. It is a worthy champion of the recent inexcusable speech delivered by Ambassador Bayard.

Hardin Led His Ticket.

The official vote in Kentucky will add to the complications of the Democratic situation. The Democratic State convention adopted the Chicago straddle on the currency question and immediately proceeded to claim a great victory for sound money. It will be remembered that the men who framed the Chicago plank declared that it was "a vote getter," being susceptible of any interpretation, and after the convention Hardin construed the plank as in favor of free silver. The State Committee labored with him, urging the importance of keeping silver in the background just at this time, but Hardin declined to be a party to this transaction and continued to preach free silver from the stump. When it was found that the Democratic ticket was defeated in the State it was contended that it was purely a revolt against the free silver lunacy of the gubernatorial candidate. Now it appears from the official vote that Hardin led his ticket, but was defeated by Bradley, the Republican candidate, who made the canvass on an honest money platform that meant something, by 8,474. It is [illegible] in order for our Democratic friends to explain Hardin's vote.

The Gorman Machine.

Freeman Rasin, the defeated Democratic boss of Baltimore, and second to Arthur P. Gorman in command of the smashed Democratic machine in Maryland, now admits that except for the power of the machine Maryland would would have gone Republican in nearly every election since 1875. That was the year when the ballots and ballot-boxes were burned in several districts and the "crooks" of the Gorman-Rasin machine counted in the Democratic candidate for Governor. Rasin, in speaking of the results of the recent Republican victory said to a political friend:

Those people who think it will be an easy matter to swing Maryland back into the Democratic column do not know what they are talking about. The defeat our people suffered on Tuesday last has thoroughly demoralized the party organization, and the demoralization will increase as the time passes and the offices are filled by Republicans. It has taken many years to perfect the organization in the city and State, and now that it has been knocked to pieces at one blow it will take many more years to get together another one that will prove effective and be able to recapture the State and city government. Only the most glaring mistakes on the part of the Republicans—and they will be very careful—will turn the city and State back to where they have been for twenty-eight years. Very few people know it, but I do, that without our perfect organization Maryland would have gone Republican at every election since 1875, and the city would have done likewise. The majorities we have secured have been brought about by the use of the "machine," as it is called, and without that machine every Governor for the same period would have been Republican. The election machinery alone was worth 15,000 votes to the party, and that, taken with the other work done by the organization, has given the Democrats control of the State.

If it had not been for the organization and its work Cleveland would not have got the vote of this State in 1884, 1888 or 1892. As it was, in 1884 and 1888 it was a close shave. But the work of the organization saved the day, as it has always done. Last year the hardest work we have done for twenty years was done to elect John K. Cowan to Congress, and then the people who were hardest to manage were the regulars, who opposed Mr. Cowan because of his hostility to the organization in previous elections. In fact, the hardest people to keep in line from now on will be the old regulars, who are badly demoralized by their defeat. The truth is, I do not expect to see Maryland redeemed while I live. Many years will pass before a compact organization can be effected, no matter who may be selected as leaders. The only thing that can save the party now will be some grave blunder on the part of the victors, and they are too shrewd to commit any very serious mistakes.

Several other Democrats who were prominently connected with the machine, and know by what methods it maintained control, endorse Rasin's views. They declare that Maryland is in the Republican column to stay.

It is easy for mistakes to creep into a newspaper, but it certainly looks very queer to see the Boston Journal referring to "Hon. James S. Frye, United States Senator from Maine."

PINEOLA COUGH BALSAM

Is excellent for all throat inflammation and for asthma. Consumptives will invariably derive benefit from its use, as it quickly abates the cough, renders expectoration easy, assisting nature in restoring wasted tissues. There is a large percentage of those who suppose their case to be consumption who are only suffering from a chronic cold or deep seated cough, often aggravated by catarrh. For catarrh use Ely's Cream Balm. Both remedies are pleasant to use. Cream Balm, 50c. per bottle; Pineola Balsam, 25c. at Druggists. In quantities of $2.50 will deliver on receipt of amount.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

DR. G. C. OSGOOD,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHELOE,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

The Name of the Next President of the United States

WILL BE ANNOUNCED IN

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE

OF NOVEMBER 4th, 1896.

Public interest will steadily increase, and the disappointment of the men whose votes turned the scale at the last election, with the results under the administration they elected, will make the campaign the most intensely exciting in the history of the country.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE,

the leading Republican family newspaper of the United States, will publish all the political news of the day, interesting to every American citizen regardless of party affiliations.

Also general news in attractive form, foreign correspondence covering the news of the world, an agricultural department second to none in the country, market reports which are recognized authority, fascinating short stories, complete in each number, the cream of the humorous papers, foreign and domestic, with their best comic pictures, fashion plates and elaborate descriptions of woman's attire, with a varied and attractive department of household interest. The "New York Weekly Tribune" is an ideal family paper, with a circulation larger than that of any other weekly publication in the country issued from the office of a daily. Large changes are being made in its details, tending to give it greater life and variety, and especially more interest to the women and young people of the household.

A SPECIAL CONTRACT enables us to offer this splendid journal and "The Weekly Courier" for

PANIC IN THE BOURSE.

Marquis Charged with Cruelty to His Family.

Portuguese Ambassador Dead—Other Foreign Matters of Interest.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 15. The bourse here has been in a state of panic for several days past. All stocks, including rents, declined rapidly. Various causes were ascribed for the collapse. The situation was so serious Wednesday that all the chief bank directors were summoned to the finance ministry where the director of the credit department severely reprimanded them and accused several of them of speculating for the fall. He instructed them how to remedy the trouble, and the obeying of his instructions resulted in an upward tendency yesterday as soon as the bourse opened.

Greece Wants to Take a Hand In.

Athens, Nov. 15.—It is reported here that Greece has requested the powers which are acting conjointly in the Turkish matter to allow her to join in any naval manifestation that may be made against Turkey. Request is made on the ground that the large number of Greeks residing in Turkey should be protected by their own government. If the powers assent to the request the Greek Minister of Marine will order the steel battle ship Spetza, 4880 tons, one of the three largest ships in the Greek navy, to join the allied squadron.

Marquis Charged with Cruelty.

London, Nov. 15. Sir George Newnes, the millionaire owner of the Strand Magazine and of Tit Bits, formerly a Liberal member for Newmarket, [illegible] it is stated, to give an order for the most perfect thing in yachts that British science is capable of [illegible] year, when the present race scandal has blown over will issue a challenge for the America's cup.

Sir Geo. Newnes is a devoted yachtsman and also a gentleman in the American sense of the word.

Personal friends of Lord Dunraven assert that he showed his pamphlet to the Prince of Wales before issuing it, and that the Prince approved of it. It is [illegible] suggested however that the Prince failed to notice the gravity of the charge about the water line [illegible] as the London editors did at first.

Ambassador to Vatican Dead.

Rome, Nov. 15. J. W. Da Silva Ferrato De Carvalho Martens, Portuguese ambassador to the Vatican, is dead.

All on Board Drowned.

London, Nov. 15. A despatch from Halsengfors says the Finnish schooner Elpisse was wrecked on Hurricane off that port and all on board drowned.

Will Contribute Substantially.

London, Nov. 15. A despatch to the Central News from Rome says that the Pope has a slight cold, and suspended the giving of audiences Tuesday and Wednesday. His illness is not serious. The despatch further says His Holiness has promised to contribute substantially to the development of the Irish Seminary in Rome.

Steam Launch Lost and 48 Persons Believed to be Drowned.

London, Nov. 15. Admiralty have received information that a steam launch belonging to the British cruiser Edgar was lost near Nagasaki on November 13th, and it is believed that all of the 48 persons in the boat were drowned.

Gone to Berlin.

London, Nov. 15. Thomas Byrnes, ex-Chief of the New York Police, has gone to Berlin where he will remain several weeks in connection with detective matters.

Breathing More Freely.

London, Nov. 15. Stock Exchange dealers were breathing more freely today and only one failure was announced contrary to expectations. The market opened cautiously and the movements of the various securities were irregular.

For the Execution of Stokes.

London, Nov. 15. A despatch from Brussels states that the Congo State has paid an indemnity of 6,000 pounds for the execution of Stokes, the English trader.

British Steamer Foundered.

London, Nov. 15. British Steamer Leo, from Odessa Oct. 20th, for Copenhagen, has foundered off Holmen, Norway. Her mate, engineer and six seamen were picked up by the British Steamer Embleton, from Oversham for Oxelosund, and landed at Swinemunde. The remainder of the Leo's crew were lost.

Offered at Auction.

London, Nov. 15. The Guion line steamers Alaska and Arizona were offered at auction yesterday at Liverpool. There were many bidders, including Italians and Germans. The Alaska was withdrawn at £27,000 and the Arizona at £20,000.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

Report of the Committee on Law Discussed.

Washington, Nov. 15. The General Assembly of the Knights of Labor yesterday discussed the report of the Committee on Law. A proposition to reduce the per capita tax from two cents per month to one cent was defeated. The constitution was amended so as to take from the past general master workman the right to vote in the General Assembly, but permitting him to retain his seat as an advisory member with authority to participate in all debate.

The new rule will apply in the same manner to Mr. Sovereign when he retires one year hence. One of the prominent officials of the assembly made the statement that all rumors derogatory to the report of Treasurer Hayes were false. The report, he said, made a favorable showing, but the assembly did not care at this time to make it public.

EBEN S. JORDAN.

Of the Firm of Jordan, Marsh & Co., Boston, Dead.

Boston, Nov. 15. Eben D. Jordan, one of the founders of the firm of Jordan, Marsh & Co., died at 6.50 this morning. He was aged 73, and was at Danville, Me. He was left fatherless and penniless at the age of four. He went to Boston when he was 14 years old with $1.25 capital and secured employment at small wages. He worked industriously and lived economically, and at the age of 19 he opened a small dry goods store on Hanover street. By his energy and business enterprise he did a business of $8,000 the first year, and at the end of four years his sales had been built up to $100,000 a year.

This business Mr. Jordan sold out and in 1851 the firm of Jordan, Marsh & Co. was formed. The firm successfully went through the panic of 1857 and its success and progress from then on has been remarkable, the retail store having expanded into an establishment covering many acres of ground and employing nearly 3,000 persons.

Mr. Jordan refused all suggestions of political honors but was a public-spirited citizen and always anxious to promote the interests of the city. In the latter part of his life Mr. Jordan took twenty-five of his employes to Europe on a pleasure trip and to give the Europeans an idea of the intelligence and capacity of American toilers of both sexes. The party were received by Prest. Grevy, of France, John Bright, and many other famous men.

Mr. Jordan has performed many deeds of unassuming charity. He had been ill about four months with a complication of diseases.

A SLEEPLESS SON.

A Boston Victim of Insomnia Given Refreshing Slumber.

A GRATEFUL LETTER FROM A PROMINENT BEACON STREET MAN.

Read What Dr. Edward E. Hale's "Commonwealth" Says of Kola Nervine Tablets.

A well known citizen is Mr. R. W. Clapp, of No. 2 A Beacon street, Boston. His son was compelled to leave college because of nervous prostration, accompanied by sleeplessness and restlessness, the latter so great that his father had to stay with him at night. Here is a copy of a letter recently received from Mr. Clapp.

Office of the Ypsilanti Water Co., No. 2 A Beacon St., Boston, Mass.

Eureka Chemical & Mfg. Co., La Crosse, Wis.—Gentlemen: My son is using Dr. Charcot's Kola Nervine Tablets for nervousness and insomnia. Though he has not yet taken one box the improvement is very marked. The nervousness is rapidly disappearing and he sleeps soundly and sweetly. I take pleasure in giving you these facts. Yours very truly,

R. W. Clapp.

From Dr. Edward E. Hale's "Commonwealth."

On page 15 of a recent issue of the Boston Commonwealth, Dr. Edward E. Hale's paper appears the following, which the proprietors of Dr. Charcot's Kola Nervine Tablets never saw until it was sent them by a Boston friend:

Our readers have hardly failed to notice the interest which has, in the last few years, been attached to kola, a stimulant, if we may call it so, largely in use in Africa. The same sort of stories are told of kola which used to be told so freely of the coca from which cocaine is made. From the seventeenth century African traders have brought home such stories. In 1883 Dr. Daniel discovered that the kola nuts or guru nuts contain an alkaloid identical with that found in tea, coffee, mate and guarana. From that time they have received a great deal of attention from the medical profession. The natives believe that with the use of the kola nut they can withstand hunger, thirst, heat and exhaustion.

We refer to these virtues of the kola nut now because that somewhat remarkable establishment, the Eureka Chemical & Manufacturing Company, has put upon the market a very elegant and highly approved preparation from the kola nut, which will interest the medical profession and indeed all persons who suffer from insomnia or nervous prostration.

The proprietors of Dr. Charcot's Kola Nervine Tablets absolutely guarantee infallibly good results from one month's treatment. $1.00 per box (one month's treatment). See Dr. Charcot's name on box. Kola booklet free. All druggists or sent direct by Geo. C. Goodwin & Co., Wholesale Agents, Boston, Mass.

Mr. A. D. Andrews, of Boston, is visiting with friends in the city for a few days.

Mrs. Theresa Nickerson, of Orrington, has returned from Melrose, Mass., where she has been for several months.

The sloop yacht Iowa, Capt John Cohoon, of this city, skipper, has gone down the bay with a party aboard.

Mrs. William Holbrook and daughter, Bertha, of Orrington, have gone to Providence, R. I., for a visit for a few weeks.

Mr. Roderick Sutherland, of this city, who is lumbering on Hale Brook on the South Branch, is home for a few days, having come from his camps Thursday.

The schooner C. B. Wood, which has had her foremast replaced at Bucksport, is now on the marine railway there being recalked and receiving other repairs.

Miss Fannie Farrar, of Dexter, is expected in the city this morning for a visit with Miss Josephine Crosby. Monday Miss Crosby and her guest go to Bucksport for a short visit.

Mr. George Turner, of Portland, formerly of this city, has been here this week and during his stay has sold his farm at Whiting hill to Mr. J. P. Elliot, who will move to it from his present residence on Holyoke street.

Mr. Leon F. Higgins, of this city, a member of Wilcey Lodge of Odd Fellows, has been appointed District Deputy Grand Master of the district which includes the Odd Fellows' lodges in Bangor, Brewer, Orrington, Hermon and Etna.

The store of Alderman Gilmore at North Brewer was broken into, it is reported, a few nights ago and between $20 and $30 value in money and goods stolen. Alderman Gilmore thinks the thief came across the river in a boat as he found one of the missing articles near the shore.

It was necessary to haul a considerable amount of earth to fill in the cavity on Center street caused by the break in the water main there, that which was dug out to get at the pipe and sewer not being anywhere near sufficient to fill in with again, as a large amount had been washed away down the sewer by the rush of water. Some fear has been expressed that this with the bricks from the point in the sewer where the water broke into it, may cause considerable trouble by obstructing the sewer, but no such difficulty has as yet become apparent and the heavy volume of water probably carried most of the refuse way through to the river.

THE doctor may be a good old man, but even so, medical examinations and the "local-application" treatment are abhorrent to every modest woman. They are embarrassing—often useless. They should not be submitted to until everything else has been tried. In nine cases out of ten, there is no reason for them. In nine cases out of ten, the doctor in general practice isn't competent to treat female diseases. They make a branch of medicine by themselves. They are distinct from other ailments. They can be properly understood and treated only by one who has had years of actual practice and experience in this particular line. This is true of Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalid's Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for all derangements of the reproductive organs of women, has been in actual use for more than thirty years. It was originally sold with an absolute guarantee that it would cure every case, or that the money paid for it would be refunded. Its success has been so universal that this guarantee is no longer necessary. The "Favorite Prescription" relies now upon the thousands of testimonials from grateful and happy women, in all parts of the land, whose lives have been made worth living by its use. "Favorite Prescription" is sold by druggists.

Complete information regarding it, and testimonials from hundreds who have used it, are embodied in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a standard medical work of 1008 pages, profusely illustrated, which will be sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only. This work is a complete family doctor book and should be read by both young and old. Address, WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo, N. Y.

WHALING STEAMER AURORA

Makes An Adventurous Voyage and an Unsuccessful One.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Nov. 15. Whaling Steamer Aurora arrived here from Davis Straits yesterday after a very adventurous voyage fraught with much danger. Her cruise was unsuccessful, she having secured no black whales. During the homeward trip the Aurora was caught in the ice and drifted on a floe. Fortunately she dropped back into water after eight days, escaping without serious injury. She brings no news of the Fram, Dr. Nansen's exploring ship, which was reported to be floating off the west coast of Greenland in September.

THE ERICSSON

Her Official Trial Not to Come off Until Next Year.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15. Torpedo boat Ericsson, which has suffered two accidents to her machinery and caused great delay in having her official trial, will not be tried until some time next year. The new piston rod and other material needed to make the repairs have been forwarded from Dubuque, Iowa, to New London, Conn., where the Ericsson is now lying, but it will be at least two months before it can be in place, and then some additional time must be taken up in preliminary runs before the regular official trial can be had.

Cheap Living.

One half the world does not know how the other half lives, nor do the well fed thousands in this prosperous city, who daily consult their menu of many expensive and rare courses, comprehend that many other thousands of hardworking, active, healthy, energetic, bustling people live for a whole day upon the price of a plate of oysters in a fashionable restaurant. Let one man—a letter carrier—speak for himself: "I have three meals a day—coffee, cakes and either ham, or beans or corned beef and beans at each meal, at a cost of not more than 20 cents a meal. They give you bread and butter with the meat, and a fellow has plenty to eat in three such meals. If a fellow is hard pushed, he can get along on 32 cents a day with two meals with meat, beans, bread and coffee at each. I have known chaps, who have been idle for a long time, to live upon 20 cents a day—corned beef, beans, bread and butter, and water for one meal, and pie and coffee at the other in the evening. A fellow could live all winter on these two meals if he didn't have to juggle cakes and barrels and bales of cotton or do heavy work. Thus it may be seen that a man needn't starve who has $1.40 a week to spend on food."—New York Recorder.

MAINE MELANGE.

Marcus Hanna Rewarded for An Act of Bravery.

Resignation of S. C. Whitcomb---Other Matters.

Aroostook.

Houlton Times: We may expect about this time to see notices in our zealous contemporaries to the effect that "winter has permanently and finally set in in Houlton." And all on account of our little flurries of snow during the past few weeks. Pshaw, a mere bagatelle!

Cumberland.

A company has been organized in Portland for carting away ashes and refuse at very small cost to residents.

Hancock.

During the past few weeks the Norris, Gleason, McDonald and Call cottages at Shady Nook, and the Wiswell and Lord cottages at Pleasant Beach, have been broken into.

Knox.

Walter Steele, forty years old, unmarried, a paving cutter in the employ of the Glen Cove Granite Co., was badly injured by a premature explosion Wednesday. He had poured in the powder for the blast, when a spark from his pipe caused an explosion. His face was filled with powder. He will probably lose the sight of the left eye. He was taken to the Portland Eye and Ear Infirmary.

Penobscot.

J. F. Clement, a former well-known citizen of Newport, died suddenly of pneumonia in Denver, Colorado, last week. Mr. Clement was in business here under the firm name of Dow & Clement, and went West several years ago, since which time he has been a large operator in silver and gold mining in Colorado and Arizona.

Somerset.

Monday evening W. L. Pushor, cashier of the Pittsfield National Bank, celebrated his birthday by getting married. One of the town's best known and most cultivated young ladies assisted in and adorned the celebration. The occasion was one of the prettiest home weddings of the season. The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock, at the residence of J. E. Connor, Esq., father of Miss Blanche, the bride. Rev. Mr. Read officiated and only the immediate families of the contracting parties were present.

Rev. S. C. Whitcomb, who for the past ten years or more has been pastor of the Free Baptist church in Pittsfield, surprised and saddened his congregation Sunday morning by reading from the pulpit a formal resignation of his pastorate. The resignation was tendered under circumstances that the society cannot ignore, and the resignation has been or will very soon be accepted. Mr. Whitcomb takes this totally unexpected course from having been offered the post of State Missionary with headquarters at Bangor, a position formerly held by Rev. B. D. Newell. He will enter upon his new duties as soon as the society can make arrangements in reference to his successor.

Washington.

Herring were so plentiful on the Campobello shore near the Narrows the latter part of last week, that hundreds of hogsheads a night were "driven" by means of torches, and secured by the boats for the factories in that vicinity.

Agnes Phelps, a young daughter of Geo. Phelps, of Eastport, was badly bitten about the face and head one day last week by a bull dog owned by John Stamp. But for the timely arrival of a neighbor with an axe, the child might have been killed by the ferocious brute.

On Friday, Nov. 1st, one year had elapsed since the opening to the public of the Peavey Memorial Library in Eastport. That the facilities offered citizens to gratify their literary tastes have been appreciated is evident from the fact that during that time 19,333 books have been loaned by the institution to home readers, besides the large number of people who have nightly been accommodated in the reading room, taking advantage of the opportunity to have the use of all the latest periodicals published.

Mr. Delphia Boyden, of Boyden's Lake, was quite seriously wounded on Thursday last by a shot from a gun discharged by a young son. The lad was firing at a mark on the carriage house not knowing his parent was on the inside. Several of the shots took effect, but the most serious was from a large shot which entered the wrist joint.

An exciting race took place on the river last week from Eastport to St. Andrews between the Viking and Lillie recently chartered by the Frontier Steamboat Co. The Lillie got away some five minutes ahead, and the Viking slowly closed the gap between them, until off St. Andrews when the Lillie had a lead of about two minutes. The passengers on both boats entered into the excitement of the race and many small wagers were laid among themselves. Some distance beyond St. Andrews the Lillie became disabled, and arrived in Calais an hour and a half after the other boat.

Another act of gallantry was tardily rewarded last week, when Marcus A. Hanna, of Knightsville, received from Washington a medal of honor, a five pointed star of bronze, pendant from a bronze eagle, which in turn is suspended by a silk miniature flag from a decorated clasp. On the reverse of the star is the inscription: "The Congress to Serg. Marcus A. Hanna, Co. B, 50th Mass. Volunteers, for gallantry at Port Hudson, La., July 4th, 1863." On that date the Massachusetts regiment, of which Mr. Hanna was sergeant, was lying in the rifle pits at Port Hudson, and every canteen was dry. About 2 o'clock the suffering became so intense that Lieut. Hurd called for volunteers to go to the rear, for water, the service being so hazardous that he would not take the responsibility of sending one. Only one man responded—Mr. Hanna. Before he started a dummy man was raised over the rifle pit, and it was speedily riddled by bullets. Mr. Hanna then took a dozen canteens, disposed them about his body so as to afford the best protection, and springing from the pit, dashed for the nearest cover, 1,000 yards away. No bullet hit him, but they came so close that after going some distance Mr. Hanna threw himself flat on his face. The confederates then ceased firing, thinking he was dead. After ten minutes' rest, he arose and ran the remaining distance, no shots being fired. Neither was any fired on his return. The rebels evidently appreciated bravery.

Excuse For the Pug.

Although Lee Jones lives in Alameda, he is devoted to his club; and his devotion frequently costs him the last boat. Of course he always explains the matter next day at dinner.

Within the past few days Mrs. Jones' pug dog has been running off and staying away for half a day at a time. Monday evening he disappeared, and Tuesday morning he was still among the missing. Mrs. Jones became anxious about her pet, and at the breakfast table asked her cook:

"Maggie, where do you suppose Pug is? He was away all night."

"I don't know, mum, but I guess he missed the last boat," was the prompt response.—San Francisco Post.

MAKE YOURSELF STRONG

If you would resist pneumonia, bronchitis, typhoid fever, and persistent coughs and colds. These ills attack the weak and run down system. They can find no foothold where the blood is kept pure, rich and full of vitality, the appetite good and digestion vigorous, with Hood's Sarsaparilla, the one true blood purifier.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, sick headache, indigestion.

"I pray you, Master Lieutenant," said Sir Thomas More, as he ascended the scaffold, "see me safe up, and for my coming down I can shift for myself." "A dauntless soul erect, who smiled at death," said Thompson. He suffered martyrdom but once, at the hand of the headsman, but how many suffer it every day through the slow, but insidious hand of disease. He put his faith in Princes and was lost; put yours, Oh! suffering female, in the curative properties of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and be saved from hours of suffering. It cures every form of woman's weakness, strengthens the pelvic organs, and forever checks those "beauty destroying" diseases so common to your sex.

CITY AND VICINITY.

DEFENDER'S MEN SPEAK UP.

They All Know That Dunraven's Charges are Untrue.

The members of the Defender's crew who are at Deer Isle take a lively interest in the newspaper discussion of the yacht race.

A representative of the Boston Herald called on each of the crew with a copy of the charges made by Lord Dunraven against the cup committee, the yacht, and, in fact, every one connected with the yacht. No member of the New York Yacht Club could feel more keenly the insult than did the Deer Isle sailors who manned the Defender. They were unanimous in asserting that the charges were without foundation.

Capt. F. P. Weed, Deer Isle, the man who selected the crew, said: "The more Lord Dunraven talks the bigger fool he makes of himself. I sailed out of London for many years and I know enough about the English people to know that they will not stomach any such bluff as that. If we could only had such a man as Lieut. Henn to go up against you would have seen the races sailed, and if he had been beaten he would have accepted his defeat without any whine. I know every man of that Defender crew, and know them to be honest, true-hearted men, and if there had been any underhand business, at least some of them would have told me."

E. E. Hamlin, of Green's Landing said: "I know that no ballast was put into the Defender after she was measured. I was aboard the yacht all the time, as were all the other members of the crew, and if anything of that kind had been done I would have known it. There would have been no object in putting in any more anyway, for she was exactly right before we took her to the basin to be measured. I'd like to bet $50 that we could beat the Valkyrie with the Vigilant, and every one knows that the Defender is faster than the Vigilant. The Valkyrie might be faster than the Vigilant in a light breeze to windward, but in a heavy breeze the Vigilant would beat her any way."

Said Samuel Bray: "It's all a lie. The Defender came alongside Friday night before the first race, just as usual, for us to get our suppers and put our bedding aboard her. We always slept aboard the yacht, and the bedding was taken out the next morning. The only time the tender was alongside us till 12 o'clock was the night we broke our gaff in the race with the Vigilant for the Goelet cup. We cut up the ballast Friday afternoon and stowed it in the hold, instead of leaving it on deck, where it was when she was measured."

R. G. Small said: "I will take my oath that not a pound of ballast was put into her after she was measured. A man mean enough to pull out of the race in the way Dunraven did is mean enough to make any kind of talk."

John E. Billings said: "It's all rot, and he knows it. The Defender was not an inch deeper at any time than she was when she was measured. As to the Valkyrie fouling us, any man that knows anything about yachting knows that the Valkyrie was wholly to blame."

Others spoke in the same vein.

Information Wanted.

The following letter explains itself:

Chicago, November 9th, 1895.

Weekly Courier, Boutelle Bros., Bangor, Maine:

Dear Sirs: Pardon the liberty I take in addressing you, but in assisting my grandfather, in compiling a book of memoirs I wish to obtain some information concerning an event which transpired in the town of Hampden, Me., about 59 years ago, and which some of the old settlers will recall to memory; and I seek your valuable paper as my medium.

Major Geo. S. Smith, of Marion, Va., in relating some incidents of his early life, tells of a flag raising on July 4th, 1836, in the town of Hampden, on which occasion Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, one of his personal friends, was orator.

No doubt the demonstration was due partly to the fact that Mr. Hamlin was captain of a company of militia and Major Smith first lieutenant, and they wished to show their uniforms.

The staff was a ship's-mast with topmast and crosstrees and at its base was placed several bottles containing champagne, also one with an account of the event and signed by the participants.

The banquet which followed at the Hampden House, of which Maj. Smith was proprietor, was indulged in by Messrs. Grant, then sheriff of the town, Dr. Sanger, Nickols and Hunch (?) son of Gen'l Hunch, war of 1812; the initials of the above gentlemen cannot be recalled.

The Hampden House was situated on what was known as the lower corner, and adjoined Dr. Sanger, and on the dividing line was erected the staff.

The information desired is whether the staff is extinct, and if so, were the bottles found and any record of the written matter placed on file. Also, if any of your readers or members of the above named gentlemen's families can give me any information concerning the incident, or its latter story, it will be greatly appreciated and will add gusto to Maj. Smith's book. Also if the original paper or its copy can be obtained at a reasonable cost.

NO MORE RHEUMATISM.

No One Need Longer Suffer from Rheumatism or Neuralgia. Dr. Greene's Nervura Blood and Nerve Remedy Always Cures.

SHERIFF E. W. HOWE.

Half the world suffers from pains and aches when there is not the slightest reason for so doing. Headache is alarmingly frequent and leads to serious results. Backache is most common and keeps thousands in misery. Neuralgic pains of side or chest torment myriads of victims. All this suffering is caused by a weakness, irritation or diseased condition of the nerves and blood, is entirely unnecessary, and can easily be cured.

Sheriff E. W. Howe, of Northfield, Vt., advises you in all such cases to use Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. He tells the great good this remarkable medicine did him, and to show the high esteem in which he is held by his towns-people and that you can trust implicity in every word he says, it is only necessary to state that Sheriff Howe has been Sheriff and Deputy Sheriff of Northfield for 23 years; is Town Trustee, Street Commissioner of Northfield, Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, Town Grand Juror and School Committee, besides being a prominent business man well known throughout the State of Vermont. The word of a man so highly trusted and honored should be taken and his advice followed by all.

"I was sick five months which left me with asthma and rheumatism. The asthma would take me most any time, especially nights, when I was obliged to get up and open windows and doors to breathe. It took me once on my way home so bad that I was obliged to have help to get home. I suffered greatly with this trouble. My rheumatism at this time was very bad, being so that for six weeks I did not leave the room and for five months I did not do a day's work.

"I saw Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy advertised and the cures effected by its use, and thought it might hit my case, and it did. The asthma is greatly improved, in fact, it is nearly cured, and the rheumatism is greatly helped. I think very highly of this remedy for it is good. I would recommend anybody to use Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy for asthma or rheumatism, for it is a good medicine. I deem it simple justice to a great remedy to write this letter. I never expected to do any more work when I was sick, but the Nervura did me a great deal of good and I am now able to work again."

It is not a patent medicine, but the prescription and discovery of the most successful living specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 34 Temple Place, Boston, Mass. He has the largest practice in the world, and this grand medical discovery is the result of his vast experience. The great reputation of Dr. Greene is a guarantee that his medicine will cure, and the fact that he can be consulted by any one at any time free of charge, personally or by letter, gives absolute assurance of the beneficial action of this wonderful medicine.

SKIN DISEASES OF CHILDREN.

To many people soap is soap, made, among other things for the purpose of washing the dirt from the body. Hence with nurses, and mothers even, one piece of soap is as good as another piece.

But what is it that causes the humor on the baby's face? In a large number of cases it is due to two things: First, the use of soap containing a large amount of free alkali, which irritates the skin, and secondly, to the germs often remaining from the fats used in making the soap, some of which are from diseased meats, which, falling upon the irritated skin, find a soil prepared for them. If the child is not in robust health, then the tissues are not sufficiently vigorous to resist these germs before they can multiply, and begin their work of destruction.

The primary cause then, of diseases of the skin in babies and children, as of older people also, is often the use of poor soap. These facts emphasize the necessity of using a pure soap like

A SHORT CURE.

A DOCTOR'S EXPERIENCE WITH A BAD CASE OF KIDNEY DISEASE.

Sparagus Kidney Pills Perform a Complete Cure in a Short Time.

Symptoms of Kidney Diseases, and Why They Are Dangerous.

Dr. T. F. Joyce, of Lynn, Mass., a graduate of the N. Y. University, '83, uses Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills in his practice.

It is unusual for regular physicians to use proprietary medicines, but many use Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills.

They do because they know that the principal ingredient is a special extract made from the roots of Asparagus, containing all its virtues in a concentrated form. They do because they know that Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills are purely vegetable and perfectly harmless.

They do it most of all because they have found Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills will cure, in cases where the drugs of the pharmacopœia have been unable even to afford relief.

Dr. Joyce writes:

LYNN, MASS., Aug. 9, 1895.

Hobb's Medicine Co.,

Chicago, Ill.

Gentlemen:

When my attention was first called to Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills, and their component parts made known to me, I was forcibly impressed with the combination as being one of great value for kidney diseases and all other ailments arising therefrom.

I found in one particular case, which had baffled all my previous efforts, that they performed a remarkable and complete cure in a very short time, and ever since I have used them in my practice with the most pleasing results in all cases.

Very truly yours,

T. F. JOYCE, M. D.

Bright's Disease is a dangerous disease of the kidneys. It is caused by overwork, worry, over-eating, etc., and other excesses. It is dangerous because it has few or no well-known symptoms.

You do not think you are sick until it is often too late to cure.

The symptoms of kidney disease in general are pain in the sides and back, headache, nervousness, frequent thirst, evil forebodings, shortness of breath, on slight exertion, chilly sensations, sleeplessness, puffiness of the eyelids, swelling of the feet and ankles, loss of flesh, etc.

Any or all of these symptoms may be the proof of kidney disease, but they are seldom laid to their true cause.

To prevent mistakes, they should be treated, as soon as they appear, with Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills.

This will cure the kidneys and relieve the symptoms in a very short time.

The cure made will be permanent, and the symptoms never will come back, unless you overwork your kidneys.

Your health depends on your kidneys. They filter your blood.

When they don't, you fall sick, as a natural consequence.

Falling sick is simply the poison in your blood making itself felt.

If you can take out the poison you will be well.

This is for the kidneys to do.

They will do it if they are well.

If they are sick, you can cure them with Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills.

The diseases and symptoms that Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills will cure, by curing the kidneys, are: Rheumatism, Gout, Anaemia, Chlorosis, Depression of Spirits, Lack of Ambition, Neuralgia, Pale and Sallow Complexion, General Muscular Weakness, and all skin diseases.

All these are caused by poorness of, or poison in, the blood.

They can only be permanently cured with Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills.

Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists, or sent, prepaid, to any address, for 50 cents per box.

Write for valuable medical pamphlet, "A Filter for Your Blood," mailed free on request. Hobb's Medicine Co., Chicago or San Francisco.

Yesterday afternoon the driver of a pair of horses attached to a heavy load of hay which was being hauled up Union street, was seen by Officer Griffin cruelly abusing one of the animals, which had balked. The officer soon stopped the brutality and after a short wait the horse went on.

The new snow plow which was built for the Bangor, Oldtown and Orono railroad arrived in the city yesterday. It was built at Woburn, Mass., and has all the latest improvements. It is entirely different from anything ever seen in Bangor. It was taken to the car house on State street last night.

Action has been taken towards starting a Maine branch of the "Teachers' International Reading Circle," representing a course of professional study at home to be governed practically by the same rules as the International Circle, of which it is a branch. The board of managers is made up of the superintendents of several schools in Maine, Miss Mary S. Snow, of Bangor, being among the number.

The Masons of this city who went to Lewiston Thursday noon to attend a meeting of Kora Temple, Order of the Mystic Shrine, attended a banquet given by the lodge at the Exchange Hotel after the business meeting. There were one hundred and sixty present and the occasion was much enjoyed. Kora Temple started with ten members less than three years ago and it now has 296, counting those initiated Thursday evening. The Lewiston members will soon come to Bangor to work degrees.

Rev. S. C. Whitcomb, of Pittsfield, who for the past ten years or more has been pastor of the First Baptist church, in that village has resigned his pastorate. Mr. Whitcomb has been offered the post of State missionary with headquarters in Bangor, a position formerly held by Rev. B. D. Newell. He will enter upon his new duties as soon as the society can make arrangements in reference to his successor. Rev. Mr. Whitcomb is one of the most popular men in his denomination in the State. In Pittsfield much regret is expressed at his departure.

Mrs. Sophia Norton, widow of the late Harrison B. Norton, formerly of Bangor, who died in Canaan last Sunday at the age of 82 years, was the only sister of Mr. Bowen Holman, who resides on the Hampden road near the tin bridge and daily attends to his business at the advanced age of 87 years. Mrs. Norton, for many years in her younger days, was a school teacher and later in life became quite famous as an authoress, contributing to the columns of the Portland Transcript, Youth's Companion and many of the monthly magazines.

Many of our people will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. John H. Finnigan, which occurred Friday at her home on State street avenue after a lingering illness. She was a bright, cheerful lady, a general favorite with all, a model wife and mother, a pure Christian spirit, accepting the trials of life with resignation, her death in the flower of youth is deeply regretted. She was a daughter of Mr. Andrew Finnegan, of Pearl street, who with her mother, one brother and one sister, husband and two children survive her. The funeral will take place from St. John's Catholic church Monday, at 8.30 A. M.

Dr. Twitchell, in looking over the list of 2 30 performers this season, trotters and pacers, says it is creditable alike to the breeders and the State, and must be of interest, as it indicates the families now receiving most attention at the hands of the horsemen and those producing most speed. There is no monopoly in this respect, the producing blood not being confined to any one family. One fact must be admitted—that Maine bred mares are the best producing mothers, and that fully one-half of the credit for excellence should be accorded to the dam. Another interesting feature is the large per cent. of pacers, showing that the drift in breeding is toward their increase, whether intentional or not.

Eastport has received quite a blow in the early closing of the sardine factories there. The sardine industry is the most important enterprise there and the whole community depends upon it more or less. A short time ago the employes struck and work was suspended for a long time, it will be remembered, costing the operatives and the town a large sum. Now the sardine packers have voted to close their factories for the season between Nov. 16th and 20th; none to operate after the latter date and they have subscribed their names to an agreement to that effect. The packers at Lubec have been asked to enter into the agreement. This action closing the factories several weeks earlier than usual in addition to the weeks in October during which they were practically closed will, it is estimated, reduce the season's pack more than 200,000 cases.

On Tuesday, November 26th, the annual "Donation Day" at the Bangor General Hospital will be observed.

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah C. Palmer will occur this afternoon at two o'clock from her late residence on Grove street.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Hospital Aid Society to have been held yesterday afternoon was postponed to next Monday afternoon.

The anniversary exercises of the Young Men's Christian Association which were to have been held tomorrow evening have been indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Charles W. Morse will hold another auction sale of horses at the Windsor Hotel stables today at 10 A. M., when he will dispose of 40 working and driving horses of good weight for the high dollar.

There was a large number of men present last Sunday afternoon to hear Rev. G. W. Hinckley, of Good Will Home, who spoke at the Young Men's Christian Association building. Mr. Hinckley is to speak again tomorrow afternoon at 2.45 and Miss Etta Henry is to be present to sing. There ought to be a full house to hear them.

George Q. H. Putnam, aged about 70 years, long a resident of Dexter, was found dead Thursday. He lived alone in the upper tenement of his home on Upper Main street, Mr. H. Heald occupying the lower part. Mr. and Mrs. Heald were absent from home during the forenoon but heard Mr. Putnam in the morning. All being unusually quiet at noon, Mr. Heald went up stairs and found that Mr. Putnam had passed away. As he had been in his usual health his death was entirely unexpected.

The estimated cut of logs the coming winter in the territory on the East Branch above Grand Lake dam is from 18,000,000 to 20,000,000 feet of logs. The concerns lumbering there and the amounts they will cut are: Orren Leslie, 2,000,000; Joy & Kelley, who haul onto Trout Brook, will land about 2,000 000 on the banks of the stream; George Finch, Webster Brook, 1,200,000 to 1,500,000; Chas. Dudley, Telos Lake, 1,500,000; Cornelius Murphy, Chamberlain Lake, 4,000,000; Lawler Bros., Allegash Lake, 4,000,000; Madison Grant, Fourth Lake, 3,000,000.

We predict that no one attending the lecture on "The Coming Girl" at the Memorial Parlors this afternoon, will regret the money or the time given to so instructive and interesting talk as this of Miss Lindley; or to so useful an institution as this of the King's Daughters' Home. Almost daily, some girl, coming from a distance, finds shelter and care there who otherwise might find only the police station, or other unsuitable shelter open to her. In the classes which have been formed for instruction in the common branches, in dressmaking, mending, and other branches of manual labor, those who need such instruction can avail themselves of the supervision of competent teachers, and so fit themselves for self-supporting employment.

DEATH OF MR. E. F. ROBERTS.

Well Known Citizen Passes Away this Morning.

Very many friends in this city and elsewhere will be deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mr. Edward F. Roberts, which took place at his home on Ohio street at about 3 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Roberts had been ill for some time, Bright's disease being the affliction. His death will be greatly regretted wherever he was known as he was highly esteemed by all.

He was the head of the firm of A. H. Roberts & Son and was well known in business circles. His son, Mr. Ambrose E. Roberts, returned home from St. Paul a short time ago.

Mr. Roberts is survived by his wife and two children, who will have the deepest sympathy in their bereavement. A more extended obituary will appear hereafter.

THE BIG GAME.

Portland vs. Bangor in Foot Ball To-Day.

This afternoon at 2 30 o'clock the most interesting foot ball game of the fall will be played, the old rivals, Portland and Bangor High Schools, being the opponents and with any kind of respectable weather the crowd will be a large one as wide spread interest is being taken in the contest.

The Portland team and a number of Portland "rooters" arrived in the city yesterday afternoon on the 4.50 train and made their headquarters at the Bangor House. The players went to bed early in order to get all needed rest. Quite a number more Portland enthusiasts will come over on this morning's train so that the Portland team will have quite a crowd to cheer it on.

The Forest City players are all in first rate condition and will do their best to win. They are strengthened by Hussey, last year's guard, who, it is said, will play to-day. The team is accompanied by Mr. A. K. Hall, of Harvard, who has been coaching it for several weeks.

The Bangor boys are in fairly good condition and the line up will probably be about the same as last Saturday. Knaide was still lame yesterday and if he is unable to play there will be several changes in positions, but it is hoped that he will appear. The officials will be about the same as at the first game.

Arrangements have been made to keep the crowd on the side lines by roping off the field and a force of police officers will be on hand to keep the gridiron clear. It is hoped that nothing may occur to prevent the game from being played as it should be. Bangor has a good reputation in this respect and it is intended that nothing shall occur to change it.

As this may possibly be the last game on the local grounds this year and as the home team needs money to pay for coaching and the expenses of the Portland team it is hoped that the attendance will be large. Judging from the talk about town it will be as everybody expects a close and interesting game.

Touchdowns.

Bowdoin has the honor of having accomplished something that neither Yale nor Harvard could do and that is, score on Boston Athletic Association. The latter team is as strong as any in the United States. One of its best games will be with Chicago Athletic Association on Thanksgiving Day at Chicago.

Colby this year has depended almost entirely upon the flying wedges and mass plays which no other colleges in Maine and few, if any, in other States use, although they are allowed by the Harvard-Pennsylvania rules, but not by the Yale-Princeton rules.

As they mass about all of the members of the team in one spot they are hard to stop and are dangerous to the players on both sides. It is probable that no rules will allow them next year.

Bowdoin and Bates play to-day in Portland and another exciting contest will take place. Capt. Douglass, of the Bates team, attended the Bowdoin-Colby game to get points on Bowdoin's play. Bowdoin will again be obliged to play three substitute backs as the regulars are still lame.

The Portland team will be entertained at the Y. M. C. building this evening by the B. H. S. boys. The High School young ladies will provide supper. Afterwards there will be a pleasant social time with speeches. The public are invited to attend the social portion.

Walked Into the River.

About 9.30 o'clock last evening two sailors discovered a man in the river, he having walked off the wharf at City Point at the foot of Exchange street, and they pulled him out upon dry land. The man proved to be Michael Coyne, of this city. The patrol wagon was summoned and he was taken to the station. There his wet clothes were taken off, much against his will, and he was placed in a warm cell to stay during the night. He acted ugly and fought against being made comfortable.

Lectures on Architecture.

Arrangements have been made for a course of lectures on architecture in this city by Prof. Warren, of Colby. They will be delivered in the lecture room of the Young Men's Christian Association building. The dates and subjects are as follows: November 23rd, "Eastern Countries as Sources of Art;" November 30th, Grecian Architecture;" December 7th, "Roman Architecture," December 14th, "Early Christian Architecture." The lectures are expected to be both interesting and instructive and will doubtless be well attended.

An Unfortunate Character.

An unfortunate character of humanity, who has previously given his name as Jere Sullivan, and who was brought from Oldtown to serve a sentence in jail, was before Judge Vose in the Municipal Court yesterday afternoon as a vagabond. Since leaving the jail unwillingly Wednesday he has been in the police station and does not want to leave that place. He appears to be demented and talks incessantly without connected remarks.

He said at first that he was born under the bottom of the sea but finally said in Pennsylvania but not in any town. He didn't know his name and said that his age was nineteen times twenty million years. Throughout the hearing he kept talking without a let up for breath. He will be taken care of by the authorities.

POLICY OF PROTECTION.

Resolutions Adopted at Worcester Convention.

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 15. At a conference of representatives of the chambers of commerce, boards of trade and delegates of the Farmers' National Congress and other commercial organizations from various sections of the union, and delegates of the National Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, under the auspices of the national grange yesterday resolutions were adopted calling upon Congress to equalize the protective system by extending agricultural staples and American shipping in the foreign trade that just measure of protection to which they are entitled as long as protection is the controlling and public policy of the nation and recommending the "Lubin proposition" for the protection of American agriculture and shipping it in the foreign rate.

The same resolutions in substance were recently adopted by the chambers of commerce of San Francisco, Seattle, Washington, Portland, Ore., the board of trade, of Bath, Me., and leading Atlantic coast shipbuilders at a meeting in Philadelphia, and the Farmers' National Congress, at Atlanta, Ga.

"The Lubin proposition" is for the protection of American agricultural staples, a portion of which are exported by the payment of a bounty by the federal government, and the protection of American shipping in the foreign trade in the United States which in any manner competes with cheaper labor foreign countries and may be protected equally with such industries as are not protected by tariff on imports.

PEARSON-FIELD.

Brilliant Wedding in Boston Thursday.

The Boston Herald of Friday has the following account of the Pearson-Field wedding which occurred in Boston Thursday, the bride being well known in Bangor where she has visited at the residence of Mr. C. S. Pearl, who, with his family, was present at the wedding:

The state suite at the Vendome was beautifully decorated last evening for the marriage of Miss Edith Alma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Field, and Mr. Horace Bertram Pearson.

The bay window, where the ceremony was solemnized by Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks, rector of the Emmanuel church, was a mass of white chrysanthemums and green foliage. Ropes of laurel were festooned over doors and windows. In the banquet hall the decorations followed the same general design, and in the dressing rooms there were pinks and roses in abundance. The corners were filled in with palms, and the Cadet orchestra was hidden from view by a screen of the same plants.

The bride, who was attended and given away by her father, was superbly gowned in cream white satin, en traine, the corsage daintily trimmed with embroidered chiffon. At the throat the bride wore a diamond brooch, and the veil was fastened with a star of the same precious stones and a cluster of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white chrysanthemums.

The maid of honor, Miss Alice Field Pearl, of Bangor, wore an exquisite dress of white silk, brocaded with pink. The waist was of chiffon. She carried a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums.

The bride's mother was gowned in lavender brocade, the corsage trimmed with dotted tulle. The groom's mother wore her own wedding dress of white moire, trimmed with old point lace. Her ornaments were diamonds.

The best man was Mr. Edward Lester Potter, and the ushers were Messrs. C. R. Tucker, Albert Poor, C. M. Barker, W. H. Tenney, Jr., G. W. Pearson and T. W. Thorndike.

The ceremony was private, being witnessed by the relatives only. It was followed by a large reception. Mr. and Mrs. Pearson will be at home Wednesdays in January and February at Exeter chamber.

DYSPEPSIA CURED WITH MUSH.

One Man's Experience With This Homely Dish Which May Interest Others.

"Do you like that?" inquired one man of his companion at the noonday lunch. The second man had before him a bowl in which there was an island, yellow and mountainous, wholly surrounded by a mimic sea of milk.

"Well, I can't say I do," he replied after a moment's thoughtful rumination, at the same time making a deep sea sounding with his spoon. "But it agrees with me. You notice how much better I look?" His companion nodded. "I weigh 20 pounds more than I did six months ago, and I believe it is all on account of eating mush and milk. I had a terrible time with myself for awhile—gas on the stomach, dull, heavy feeling over the eyes, a taste on the back part of my tongue in the morning as if I had had a copper cent in my mouth and had been inhaling coal smoke all night and all the rest of it. I was almost unfitted for business half the time, and the worst of it was I didn't seem to care. If there is anything that will take the Chicago right out of a man and make him utterly indifferent as to whether school keeps or not, it is this feeling of general cussedness which the doctors call dyspepsia.

"I went to the physician who has always looked after my family and told him how I felt. I told him what I ate, when I ate it and how I ate it. He looked at my tongue and said I was in a pretty bad shape. I supposed he would give me a prescription with a lot of marks on it like the bill of a Chinese laundryman, but he didn't. He simply said: 'Eat mush. If you will eat mush right along for six months, not too much of it, because the dyspeptic has his spells when he wants to take on a load just as a drinker does, but in moderation, you will not have any more trouble.'

"The doctor weighs 230 pounds, and he told me he had two brothers, each of whom tipped the beam at about the same figure. They came of Pennsylvania Dutch stock, and he told me were principally raised on smearcase, or what is served here under the more elegant name of 'cottage cheese.' I told my wife what the doctor said, and I have had mush and milk nearly every evening for supper and every morning for breakfast since. As I say, I don't like it, but my dislike for dyspepsia, on the other hand, is positive."—Chicago Tribune.

France's One Guillotine.

There is only one guillotine in France all others having long since been destroyed. The one of Paris alone remains, but it travels all over the country. In the course of its peregrinations the instrument is governed by local customs, and according to their nature are executions painful or painless.

In some departments the condemned is slowly taken to the place of execution through the streets, and toilet details depend on local precedents.

Not long ago a prisoner was taken to early mass, and meanwhile the instrument of death awaited him by the church door.

In Paris only 15 minutes intervene from the waking of the prisoner to the fall of his head in the basket, but in the country the hungry knife is sometimes allowed to wait for its victim for hours. The condemned is entirely in the keeping of the jailer, who is responsible for the man's life—that is to say, it is his duty to deliver to the guillotine a living being.

But as things are the prisoner is often needlessly tormented by the timidity of the keeper, who, knowing to what penalties he would be subject, is often overanxious to guard against suicide.—Pearson's Weekly.

Things That Are Told.

Several farmers report that they have fed horses with success on hay and grain ground together.

The failure of millet in many localities demonstrates that, although this plant can stand a great deal of dry weather, it must have enough moisture in the early stages to give it a good start.

American Cultivator says that there is no advantage in strewing salt over damp hay or grain, as is often done by farmers. A better plan is to throw an occasional forkful of dry straw into the mow or over the surface. If this cannot be had, well dried brick scattered through the heap will answer a good purpose. It is astonishing how much water a dry brick will absorb. Bricks are often so used in granaries when the grain has been put in them too damp.

Reports relative to the potato crop in New York state are very conflicting from the various counties.

AMUSEMENTS.

Lewis Morrison in "Faust."

Lewis Morrison will appear at the Opera House to-night with his novel, highly effective and strong production of "Faust." The scenery and effects are excellent, it is promised. Aside from the elaborate staging of "Faust," the drama is rendered in the highest degree interesting by Mr. Morrison's graphic representation of "Mephisto." The musical novelty has been perfected for heightening the effect of the church scene. A chime of rich toned bells rings out full and clear while the worshippers assemble. As the lingering echos of the bells die away, the voices of singers announce the opening of services within the sacred edifice. Appropriate orchestral music forms a fitting accompaniment to several of the scenes. The musical selections given with the action of the piece comprise gems from Gounod's score of "Faust" and selections from the compositions of Rossini, Meyerbeer and other great composers.

Katherine Rober Next Week.

Monday evening Katherine Rober and her company of players with band and orchestra will open her week's engagement at popular prices at the Opera House in a repertoire of popular plays, chiefly comedy dramas. There will be ten performances during the week, four of which will be dime matinees and they will be presented as follows: Monday evening "Our Kitty," Tuesday evening "Banker's Daughter," Wednesday matinee "The Clipper," Wednesday evening "Heroine in Rags," Thursday matinee "Moths," Thursday evening "Little Detective," Friday matinee "Our Kitty," Friday evening "White Lies," Saturday matinee "Fanchon," Saturday evening "The Clipper." Seats are now on sale.

Notes.

"Harwell," a dramatization of Anna Katherine Green's world famous novel, "The Leavenworth Case," is asked for by managers more frequently than any other play in Mr. Charles Rohlfs' repertoire. "Sganarelle," "The Merchant of Venice" and "Richard III" follow in the order named. "Sganarelle," Mr. Rohlfs always gives a double bill, both with "Harwell" and "The Merchant of Venice."

Bangor friends of Hon. A. McNichol will regret to hear of his continued illness at his home in Calais. His son, Dr. Geo. P. McNichol, of Pittsburg, has been with him for some time.

RESCUED FROM THE GRAVE

Would Bless the Hand that Saved Him; So Thousands of Men and Women Who Have Been Cured of Diseases, that Were Fast Robbing Them of Life, Now Thankfully Tell How Professor Munyon's Remedies Gave Them Health and Strength

Joseph Burbank, of 2[illegible] South Second street, St. Louis, Mo., says: "[illegible] believe that any one suffered more than I from kidney and liver disease. I also had a serious case of catarrh of the bladder. At last I became helpless and was confined to my bed. Doctors failed to help me, and I could not obtain relief. I passed gravel in small particles and had about made up my mind to die. Finally as a last resort I began to use Munyon's Kidney and Liver Cure.
